

LCDR Maurice A. Buford
CHC, USN

LCDR Buford functions as the Marine Corps University's Command Chaplain and as a fellow with the Lejeune Leadership Institute. His military assignments include Camp Lejeune, NC; NAS Atlanta, NAS JAX - Reserves 1996 - 1999; Command Chaplain Naval Hospital Station Roosevelt Roads Puerto Rico, Dec 1999 -May 2002; Command Chaplain 1/1, Camp Pendleton, CA June 2002 –May 2005; Chaplain Naval Station Rota Spain, Camp July 2005 - March 2007; Carrier Air Wing Three Command Chaplain, April 2007 - May 2009. He has earned a B.S. in Sociology; a Master's of Divinity, a Certificate of Advanced Graduate Studies in Human Resource Development, a Doctorate of Ministry and will finish his Ph.D. in Organizational Leadership in 2010.

His areas of expertise include:

- Ethics
- Leadership
- Organizational Development